Rock your deployment with our SIS Readiness Assessment.

5 signs your institution could benefit from a SIS Readiness Assessment.

1. Misalignment among faculty, staff, and student needs.

2. Difficulty identifying institution-wide staffing or student engagement plans.

3. Budgeting and success measurement not synchronized.

4. Slow adoption to change.

5. Hidden shadow systems across the institution.

Form the foundation for a successful student deployment.

At The Groove, we understand the complexities of the student deployment journey and the critical need for consensus among faculty, staff, and students. Our team employs intuitive approaches to demystify the deployment of Workday Student and facilitate transformative changes that institutions require for the future.

One platform to support your institution.

Workday Student allows institutions to integrate all admissions, advising, records, financial aid, and student finance into a single, scalable, and dynamic system. At The Groove, we specialize in crafting solutions with clients to drive meaningful business outcomes so that faculty, staff, and student populations seamlessly operate together.

Key deliverables

Proof of concept built in Workday
